In general relativity, an event horizon is a boundary in spacetime beyond which events cannot affect an outside observer.

The event horizon as a skin between life and death.

25. BORDER AS AN EXCHANGE LOCATION

Source: Written quote from book: 'The craftsman', by R. Sennett.

I look at the skin as a (bodily)border. What kind of exchange is taking place through the skin border? And which organisms will be more interactive around the skin?

Quote: "It was strange that the tactile sense, which is so infinitely less precious to men than sight, become at critical moments our main, if not only, handle to reality."
How touch can help us understand life and death.

59. HAIR: IN- OR OUTSIDE

Summer-clothing is worn with the hairs on the inside.
Winter-clothing is worn with the hairs on the outside (worn on top of the summer garment).

De ziel bij Descartes het opdoen van prikkels door de met de huid gehandschoende hand heen⁷. Wij huizen binnen de huls van onze huid. De vraag die blijft is daardoor: waar binnen de huls — achter de handschoen — de menselijke ziel gezocht moet worden.
